CONTENTS AND INDEX

VOLUME LXI—JANUARY-JUNE, 1945

NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS ARE PRINTED IN SMALL CAPITALS

AATC, Interim Report of, Activities and Plans, 307; Program of Education for International Understanding, 387

AAUW to Hold a "Convention without Travel," 102

Academic Aptitude, Correlation between Two Tests of, A. E. TRAXLER, 383

Acceleration Is a Problem in Implementation, M. A. STEWART, 346

Accrediting, Order and Chaos in, S. LAWSON, 79; NCA Lifts Its Wartime Moratorium on, Activities, 275

ACE, Important, Publication, 20; Some Uses of the, English Test in Worcester Teachers College, L. A. AVERILL, 253

ADAMS, C. R., Institute on Marriage and Home Adjustment, 46

Adelbert College, New Curriculum at, 182

Adult, University of Chicago Organizes, -Education Courses in "Great Books," 294; Universal, Education, W. W. BRICKMAN, 316; Indianapolis Public Schools Organize, -Education Forums on Peace Problems, 374; American Association of, Education an Interim Report, 406

AEF UNIVERSITY, Plans for a Reincarnation of the, of 1918–19, 148

Again the Problem of the Emeriti, W. C. B., 388

Air Branches of the Ohio State University, 276

ALA Report on Major Reading Interests, 1944, 167

Alabama, Montgomery, Reports Notable Progress in Negro Education, C. M. DANNELLY, 430

ALEXANDER, C., National Sex Ratio and the Problem of "Reconversion," 362

American, Citations by the, Classical League, B. L. ULLMAN, 12; 26th Annual Meeting of the, Association of, Teachers of Spanish, 143; Where, Idealism, Has Paid Realistic Dividends, W. C. B., 147; Position of the, Education Fellowship, on Current Problems, 165; and English Students Discuss Postwar Education over the Air, 325; Henry C. Morrison and His Contribution to, Education, H. A. BROWN, 380; Platform for, Education Fellowship, 390; Interim Report of, Association of Adult Education, 406

ANDREWS, B. R., United Negro College Fund, Inc., 333

Annual, Meeting of the SAE, Inc., W. C. B., 309; North Central Institute of International Relations, 356

Another, Indorsement of the Proposal for a World Office of Education, 340; Professional School for Teachers Loses Its Professional Identity, W. C. B., 372

ARANGIO-RUIZ, V., Liberal Orientations: Problems on the School, 33

ARMSTRONG, C. P., Note on the Attainments of Delinquent Boys, 29

Army, Paul A. Witty Reports on the, Program for Illiterates, 52; Defense of, -Education Technique as Applied to Foreign Languages, F. PRAGER, 58

Art of Librarianship, W. D. POSTELL, 419

As to the Disposition of the Government's Educational Films, 407

Association of American Colleges, Annual Meeting of the, R. WALTERS, 60; to Open a New Office, 87

Attendance, Analysis of 1944, 30 Representative Universities, R. WALTERS, 65

Australian "MEU," 229

AVERILL, L. A., Some Uses of the ACE English Test in Worcester Teachers College, 253

Award, Howard W. Odum Wins the Edward L. Bernays, 71

B[AGLEY], W. C., Vital Educational Questions Discussed at President Stoke's Inauguration, 3; Educational Implications of the Probable Adoption of Peacetime Training, 20; 'Twas the Week before Christmas, 22; Public-School Leaders and College Executives on Peacetime Training, 51; Federal Aid for Education from a Southern Point of View, 52; Immediate Action on Peacetime Conscription-Training: The Real Motive?, 71; Twelve University Presidents Oppose Action Now on Peacetime Training, 85; Action Now on Conscription-Training Urged by 14 College Executives, 100; Should a "Must" Discipline Be Made a Feature of American Education, 100; Centennial of the Birth of Albert Edward Winship, 116; Light on Some Mistaken Dates and Data in the Annals of American Education, 118; Attitude of Public-School Leaders toward Peacetime Training, 132; Recommendations of the HR Advisory Committee on Education, 132; Where American Idealism Has Paid Realistic Dividends, 147; Plans for a Reincarnation of the "AEF University" of 1918–19, 148; National Prejudice That Has Become an Important Educational Asset, 164; Education or Legislation in Promoting Social Reforms?, 180; Ed.D. Apparently Gaining Ground as a Professional Degree, 197; State Teachers College to Have a Student-Union Building, 199; Dr. Zook Urges an Annual Federal-Aid Appropriation of $500,000,000, 212; D. C. Heath and Company: Sixty Years of Textbook Publishing, 212; University of Chicago Will Increase Student Fees, 213; SCHOOL AND SOCIETY Will Increase Its Available Space by 25 Per Cent, 215; Dr. Porterfield versus Mrs. Frank on the College-Fraternity System, 228; Franklin D. Roosevelt's Contributions to American Idealism, 243; The Services' Testing Programs Should Have Vital Lessons for Education, 244; Will the History of Education Repeat Itself?, 274; Educational Progress in Maryland, 291; The United States Will Help Latin America Toward Universal Education, 307; Annual Meeting of the SAE, Inc., 309; Should Federal Aid Be Provided for Nonpublic Schools?, 324; The Influence of the War on Discipline in Peacetime Education, 340; Recent Educational Progress in Vermont, 357; "The Hugest Task of Reforming Mass Psychology in History," 357; Another Professional School for Teachers Loses Its Professional Identity, 372; New Plan for Compulsory Military Training in the USSR, 375; Again the Problem of the Emeriti, 388; Effects of a Possible Inflation on the Educational Profession, 405; Problem of Meeting National Needs through Decentralized Education, 422

BAKER, F. E., "The Passing of the Progressive Education Association": A Reply to Dr. Kelley, 348

BECK, M., Examination and Intelligence, 414

BENEDICT, A., and M. S. LEWISOHN, New Design for Public Elementary Schools, 412

BENSON, C. E., Maine Veterans' Rehabilitation Experiment, 312

B[EYER], L. R., Columbia University Offers New "Firsts," 36; 12th Annual Sale of Easter Seals for Crippled Children, 102; Fifth Annual Luncheon-Forum of the Tuition Plan, Inc., 133; Anniversary of the University of Southern California Graduate School, 134; What of French in the Foreign-Language Programs?, 141; Washington Luncheon-Forum of Youth-Serving Agencies, 189; Fifth Annual Conference on Inter-American Affairs in New Jersey, 213; SCHOOL AND SOCIETY

CONTENTS AND INDEX

VOLUME LXI—JANUARY-JUNE, 1945

NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS ARE PRINTED IN SMALL CAPITALS

AATC, Interim Report of, Activities and Plans, 307; Program of Education for International Understanding, 387

AAUW to Hold a "Convention without Travel," 102

Academic Aptitude, Correlation between Two Tests of, A. E. TRAXLER, 383

Acceleration Is a Problem in Implementation, M. A. STEWART, 346

Accrediting, Order and Chaos in, S. LAWSON, 79; NCA Lifts Its Wartime Moratorium on, Activities, 275

ACE, Important, Publication, 20; Some Uses of the, English Test in Worcester Teachers College, L. A. AVERILL, 253

ADAMS, C. R., Institute on Marriage and Home Adjustment, 46

Adelbert College, New Curriculum at, 182

Adult, University of Chicago Organizes, -Education Courses in "Great Books," 294; Universal, Education, W. W. BRICKMAN, 316; Indianapolis Public Schools Organize, -Education Forums on Peace Problems, 374; American Association of, Education an Interim Report, 406

AEF UNIVERSITY, Plans for a Reincarnation of the, of 1918–19, 148

Again the Problem of the Emeriti, W. C. B., 388

Air Branches of the Ohio State University, 276

ALA Report on Major Reading Interests, 1944, 167

Alabama, Montgomery, Reports Notable Progress in Negro Education, C. M. DANNELLY, 430

ALEXANDER, C., National Sex Ratio and the Problem of "Reconversion," 362

American, Citations by the, Classical League, B. L. ULLMAN, 12; 26th Annual Meeting of the, Association of, Teachers of Spanish, 143; Where, Idealism, Has Paid Realistic Dividends, W. C. B., 147; Position of the, Education Fellowship, on Current Problems, 165; and English Students Discuss Postwar Education over the Air, 325; Henry C. Morrison and His Contribution to, Education, H. A. BROWN, 380; Platform for, Education Fellowship, 390; Interim Report of, Association of Adult Education, 406

ANDREWS, B. R., United Negro College Fund, Inc., 333

Annual, Meeting of the SAE, Inc., W. C. B., 309; North Central Institute of International Relations, 356

Another, Indorsement of the Proposal for a World Office of Education, 340; Professional School for Teachers Loses Its Professional Identity, W. C. B., 372

ARANGIO-RUIZ, V., Liberal Orientations: Problems on the School, 33

ARMSTRONG, C. P., Note on the Attainments of Delinquent Boys, 29

Army, Paul A. Witty Reports on the, Program for Illiterates, 52; Defense of, -Education Technique as Applied to Foreign Languages, F. PRAGER, 58

Art of Librarianship, W. D. POSTELL, 419

As to the Disposition of the Government's Educational Films, 407

Association of American Colleges, Annual Meeting of the, R. WALTERS, 60; to Open a New Office, 87

Attendance, Analysis of 1944, 30 Representative Universities, R. WALTERS, 65

Australian "MEU," 229

AVERILL, L. A., Some Uses of the ACE English Test in Worcester Teachers College, 253

Award, Howard W. Odum Wins the Edward L. Bernays, 71

B[AGLEY], W. C., Vital Educational Questions Discussed at President Stoke's Inauguration, 3; Educational Implications of the Probable Adoption of Peacetime Training, 20; 'Twas the Week before Christmas, 22; Public-School Leaders and College Executives on Peacetime Training, 51; Federal Aid for Education from a Southern Point of View, 52; Immediate Action on Peacetime Conscription-Training: The Real Motive?, 71; Twelve University Presidents Oppose Action Now on Peacetime Training, 85; Action Now on Conscription-Training Urged by 14 College Executives, 100; Should a "Must" Discipline Be Made a Feature of American Education, 100; Centennial of the Birth of Albert Edward Winship, 116; Light on Some Mistaken Dates and Data in the Annals of American Education, 118; Attitude of Public-School Leaders toward Peacetime Training, 132; Recommendations of the HR Advisory Committee on Education, 132; Where American Idealism Has Paid Realistic Dividends, 147; Plans for a Reincarnation of the "AEF University" of 1918–19, 148; National Prejudice That Has Become an Important Educational Asset, 164; Education or Legislation in Promoting Social Reforms?, 180; Ed.D. Apparently Gaining Ground as a Professional Degree, 197; State Teachers College to Have a Student-Union Building, 199; Dr. Zook Urges an Annual Federal-Aid Appropriation of $500,000,000, 212; D. C. Heath and Company: Sixty Years of Textbook Publishing, 212; University of Chicago Will Increase Student Fees, 213; SCHOOL AND SOCIETY Will Increase Its Available Space by 25 Per Cent, 215; Dr. Porterfield versus Mrs. Frank on the College-Fraternity System, 228; Franklin D. Roosevelt's Contributions to American Idealism, 243; The Services' Testing Programs Should Have Vital Lessons for Education, 244; Will the History of Education Repeat Itself?, 274; Educational Progress in Maryland, 291; The United States Will Help Latin America Toward Universal Education, 307; Annual Meeting of the SAE, Inc., 309; Should Federal Aid Be Provided for Nonpublic Schools?, 324; The Influence of the War on Discipline in Peacetime Education, 340; Recent Educational Progress in Vermont, 357; "The Hugest Task of Reforming Mass Psychology in History," 357; Another Professional School for Teachers Loses Its Professional Identity, 372; New Plan for Compulsory Military Training in the USSR, 375; Again the Problem of the Emeriti, 388; Effects of a Possible Inflation on the Educational Profession, 405; Problem of Meeting National Needs through Decentralized Education, 422

BAKER, F. E., "The Passing of the Progressive Education Association": A Reply to Dr. Kelley, 348

BECK, M., Examination and Intelligence, 414

BENEDICT, A., and M. S. LEWISOHN, New Design for Public Elementary Schools, 412

BENSON, C. E., Maine Veterans' Rehabilitation Experiment, 312

B[EYER], L. R., Columbia University Offers New "Firsts," 36; 12th Annual Sale of Easter Seals for Crippled Children, 102; Fifth Annual Luncheon-Forum of the Tuition Plan, Inc., 133; Anniversary of the University of Southern California Graduate School, 134; What of French in the Foreign-Language Programs?, 141; Washington Luncheon-Forum of Youth-Serving Agencies, 189; Fifth Annual Conference on Inter-American Affairs in New Jersey, 213; SCHOOL AND SOCIETY

Will Increase Its Available Space by 25 Per Cent, 215; Netherlands in the Educational News, 246; "It Happened in Springfield," 275; Representatives of Latin-American Education Visit the United States, 276; Institutions Plan for Veterans, 366; Many Workshops to Be Featured in the 1945 Summer Sessions, 372; Institutes and Workshops for the Summer Session, 389; Interest in China Covers a Wide Field in Education, 408; Night School for U. S. Service Forces in Rome, 424

Biology, Correlation of, and the Social Studies, A. F. NIXON, 297

BLACK, H. G., They Serve Our Servicemen: A Report from Hollywood High School, 29

BOND, H. M., New Device for Evaluating the Work of College Students, 94

BOWLING, W. G., A.B. Degree in Eight Questions and Answers, 9

BOYD, P. P., Kentucky College Enrollments, October, 1944, 12

BRECHBILL, H., Grist for the Mill, 332

BRICKMAN, W. W., Universal Adult Education, 316

Britain: Shape of Schools to Come, E. C. KENT, 209

BROWN, F. J., Comment on "Read the Bill, Not the Summaries," 174

BROWN, H. A., Henry C. Morrison and His Contribution to American Education, 380

BYRON, G., Who Teaches Whom?, 123

California, Silver Anniversary of the Graduate School, University of Southern, 4; Anniversary of the University of Southern, Graduate School, 134

CALLAWAY, E., Latin-American Students in Missouri, 302

CAPPS, A. G., and W. W. CARPENTER, Function of Public Education in Universal Military Service, 161

CARPENTER, W. W., and A. G. CAPPS, Function of Public Education in Universal Military Service, 161

CARROTHERS, G. E., Proportion of Entering Pupils Graduated by Secondary Schools, 12

Centennials, H. S. FICKE, 142

CHAMPLIN, C. D., Education in the Years to Come, 283

Character, Notable Conference on Education, and Religious Faith, 292

Chicago, First Year of the University of, New Salary Plan, 149; University of, Will Increase Student Fees, 213; University of, Organizes Adult-Education Courses in "Great Books," 294; Scholarships for the B. L. S. Program at the University of, 342

Child-Labor and Compulsory-Attendance Legislation in 1944, 71

Children, Partially Seeing, Summer Courses for Training Teachers of, 308

Chile, New School-Building Program for, A. F. ZIMMERMAN, 126

Chilean Democracy in Action, A. F. ZIMMERMAN, 367

China, Interest in, Covers a Wide Field in Education, L. R. B., 408

Clark College, Faculty Guidance Workshop at, A. A. MCPHEETERS, 365

College, Dr. Porterfield versus Mrs. Frank on the, -Fraternity System, 228; United Negro, Fund Inc., B. R. ANDREWS, 333; Further Comments on, -Fraternity Problems, G. A. ODGERS, 382

Collegiate Training of Recently Starred Scientists, S. S. VISHER, 17

Columbia, University Offers New "Firsts," 36; University's Policies as to the Admission of War Veterans, 214

Compulsory Military Training: Educational Implications of the Probable Adoption of Peacetime Training, 20; National Board of Managers, PTA, on, 21; Attitude of College Faculties toward, W. C. TROW, 44; Minnesota Group Adopts Resolutions on, A. THOMPSON, 47; Public-School Leaders and College Executives on, 51; Immediate Action on Peacetime Conscription-Training: The Real Motive?, 71; Twelve University Presidents Oppose Action Now on, 85; California Junior College Federation on, 85; Action Now on, Urged by 14 College Executives, 100; Case against Peacetime Conscription, E. V. STANFORD, 129; Attitude of Public-School Leaders toward, 132; Dangers of Peacetime Military Training, W. P. KELLAM, 139; Function of Public Education in Universal Military Service, W. W. CARPENTER and A. G. CAPPS, 161; Conscription-Training and Its Alternatives, H. HARTSHORNE, 172; B. L. ULLMAN, 219; Group of the Staff of George Washington University Approves, 228; New Plan for, in USSR, 375; Problem of Meeting National Needs through Decentralized Education, 422

Conference, on Teacher Education at Towson, Md., 5; Middlebury Cultural, 1945, 165; Junior-College Student, in New Jersey, 197; Michigan, on Higher Education, E. LEFFLER, 205; Fifth Annual, on Inter-American Affairs in New Jersey, 213; Notable, on Education, Character, and Religious Faith, 292; on the Arts, Sciences, and Professions in the Postwar World, 422

Conferences, at the University of Denver on Postwar Business Problems, 37; Series of, on Graduate Education for Negroes, 358

Contest, Sponsored by the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, 423

Continuing College President, G. E. SNAVELY, 154

Controversial Question of Religion in Public Education, F. E. JOHNSON, 398

Co-operation, Chicago Meeting of the Council on, in Teacher Education, 166; at Its Best, 373

Correlation, of Biology and the Social Studies, A. F. NIXON, 297; between Two Tests of Academic Aptitude, A. E. TRAXLER, 383

Cortland (N. Y.): State Teachers College to Have a Student-Union Building, 199

"Count Etoxinod," Slight Difference of Opinion with, H. M. LAFFERTY, 27

Criminals, Change of Attitude toward Punishment of, M. SMITH, 236

CROSS, E. A., Time for a Teachers' Union, 241

Curriculum, Alkalization of the College, F. P. FITZSIMONS, 10; New, at Adelbert College, 182; Reorganization at Pomona College, 374

CURTIS, H. S., Education for Leisure, 282

CUSHMAN, J. F., and C. LANDIS, Teacher's Marks versus the Student's Marks, 221

CYPHER, I. F., Museum Holds a Visual-Aids Institute, 316

DANNELLY, C. M., Montgomery (Ala.) Reports Notable Progress in Negro Education, 430

DAVENPORT, K. S., and H. H. REMMERS, Educational Achievement as Compared with Money Spent on Schools, 333

DAVIS, P. H., Will Gifts to Universities Continue?, 145

DEER, G. H., GI Methods for Children's Schools?, 106

Degree, A.B., in Eight Questions and Answers, W. G. BOWLING, 9; Master's, in Education, C. V. GOOD, 186; Ed.D. Apparently Gaining Ground as a Professional, 197; Some Notes on the Doctor of Philosophy, G. P. RICE, JR., 234

Delinquent, Note on the Attainment of, Boys, C. P. ARMSTRONG, 29

Democracy, Chilean, in Action, A. F. ZIMMERMAN, 367

Democratization of the Italian School, H. R. MARRARO, 401

DISQUE, R. C., Further Comment on Veterans' Education under the GI Bill of Rights, 156

Doctors' Dissertations, Effects of the War on Research as Represented by, 406

DONOHUE, F. J., Read the Bill, Not the Summaries, 41

Dumbarton Oaks Proposals and Education, Z. KLAIN, 219

DUNHAM, F. S., Wage-Earning Experience of Undergraduate Students in Education, 399

Easter Seals, 12th Annual Sale of, for Crippled Children, 102
EDMISTON, R. W., and L. C. MCBAIN, Social and Economic Background Affects School Achievement, 190
"Educated," How Nazi Soldiers Were, E. L. JORDAN, 329
Education, Conference on Teacher, at Towson, Md., 5; Proposed State Board of Higher, in Washington, W. H. FISHER, 26; Report of the Virginia, Commission, 35; Federal Aid for, from a Southern Point of View, 52; Semicentennial of the Public, Association, New York City, 53; Procrustean Bed of Higher, E. J. MCGRATH, 81; in Some of the Liberated Areas, 88; Should a "Must" Discipline Be Made a Feature of American,? 100; Entrance Requirements as Related to General Secondary, L. E. TOMLINSON, 107; for All American Youth from the Point of View of a Biologist, C. RIDDLE, 113; Mississippi Study of Higher, 117; Light on Some Mistaken Dates and Data in the Annals of American, 118; and the "Mental 4–F's," (MRS.) R. M. MCKEON, 122; Recommendations of the HR Advisory Committee on, 132; of the Veteran Now a Reality in Michigan, E. B. ELLIOTT, 158; Chicago Meeting of the Council on Co-operation in Teacher, 166; Master's Degree in, C. V. GOOD, 186; Liberal,: Training Table or Cafeteria?, F. G. STEVENSON, 187; Michigan Conference on Higher, E. LEFFLER, 205; Dumbarton Oaks Proposals and, Z. KLAIN, 219; 25th Anniversary of the Institute of International, 227; Higher, in Relation to Vocational, and Vocational Training, A. W. MUSGRAVE, 232; Books of 1944, J. L. WHEELER, et al., 259; Third Annual Meeting of the International, Assembly, 273; Will the History of, Repeat Itself?, 274; for Leisure, H. S. CURTIS, 282; Wartime Teacher, in Kentucky, with Peacetime Implications, W. S. TAYLOR, 289; Notable Conference on Character, and Religious Faith, 292; Two University Presidents on Critical Problems of Postwar, 293; United States Will Help Latin America toward Universal, 307; Meeting the Challenge of Workers', H. W. GREENE, 317; Training, and Discipline, F. N. FREEMAN, 321; Poll of Public Opinion Favors an International Office of, 324; American and English Students Discuss Postwar, over the Air, 325; Another Indorsement of the Proposal for a World Office of, 340; Influence of the War on Discipline in Peacetime, 340; America's Magic, L. A. WHITE, 353; Series of Conferences on Graduate, for Negroes, 358; What's Ahead for?, A. V. HEELY, 369; AATC's Program of, for International Understanding, 387; President Stoke on Postwar Graduate, 388; Controversial Question of Religion in Public, F. E. JOHNSON, 398; Wage-Earning Experience of Undergraduate Students in, F. S. DUNHAM, 399; Problems That a World Office of, Could Help Solve, 405; Interest in China Covers a Wide Field in, 408; Problem of Meeting National Needs through Decentralized, 422; Montgomery (Ala.) Reports Notable Progress in Negro, C. M. DANNELLY, 430 Educational, Vital, Questions Discussed at President Stoke's Inauguration, 3; Has the War Affected Civilian Students', Interests?, 86; Services Listed among Essential Activities, 87; Problems of the Peace Will Not Be Discussed at San Francisco, 291; Progress in Maryland, 291; New, Magazine for the Soviet Union, 325; Achievement as Compared with Money Spent on Schools, K. S. DAVENPORT and H. H. REMMERS, 333; Recent, Progress in Vermont, 357; Effects of a Possible Inflation on the, Profession, 405; As to the Disposition of the Government's, Films, 407
EELLS, W. C., Status of the Junior College in the United States, 1943–44, 250
Effects, of a Possible Inflation on the Educational Profession, 405; of the War on Research as Represented by Doctors' Dissertations, 406
Elementary Schools, New Design for Public, M. S. LEWISOHN, and A. BENEDICT, 412
ELLERD, A. A. JR., Winning the Peace: Second World Renaissance, 1
ELLIOTT, E. B., Education of the Veteran Now a Reality in Michigan, 158
Emeriti, Again the Problem of the, 388
Encyclopaedia Britannica, Jr., Establishes Three Fellowships, 119
ERSKINE, M., et al., Education Books of 1944, 259
Everybody Should Know Everything, G. WAKEHAM, 379
Examination and Intelligence, M. BECK, 414
Expanded Service of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, 421
Experiment in Vocabulary Building in a High School, I. W. MILES, 285

Faculty Guidance Workshop at Clark College, A. A MCPHEETERS, 365
Far-Eastern, New Courses on, Areas and Languages at Stanford University, 325
Federal Aid, for Education from a Southern Point of View, 52; Dr. Zook Urges an Annual, Appropriation of $500,000,000, 212; Should, Be Provided for Non-public Schools?, 324
Fellowship, Graduate, for German Study at an American University, 1945–46, 21
Fellowships, Library, and Scholarships Available in the University of Chicago, 5; Encyclopaedia Britannica, Jr., Establishes Three, 119; Sullivan Memorial Library, at Temple University, 357
FICKE, H. S., Centennials, 142; Education's Role in Freedom, 175
FISHER, W. H., Proposed State Board of Higher Education in Washington, 26
FITZSIMONS, F. P., Alkalization of the College Curriculum, 10
Foreign Relations, Aids and Materials for the Study of, 119
Foreigners, Freshman English for, G. L. ROGERS, 394
Fraternities, Hereafter of College, A. W. PORTERFIELD, 193
Fraternity, Dr. Porterfield versus Mrs. Frank on the College-, System, 228; "Gamma Iota Alpha," College-Sorority for GI's, 309; Further Comments on the College-, Problems, G. A. ODGERS, 382
FREEMAN, F. N., Education, Training, and Discipline, 321
Freshman English for Foreigners, G. L. ROGERS, 394
Further Comments on the College-Fraternity Problems, G. A. ODGERS, 382

"Gamma Iota Alpha," College Fraternity-Sorority for GI's, 309
GAY, R. M., "Reforming the Ph.D.": Comment on Dr. Ruediger's Comment, 59
Gay's, That Ph.D. Again: Comment on Professor, Comment, W. C. RUEDIGER, 396
German, Graduate Fellowship for, Study at an American University, 1945–46, 21
Germany, Motion Pictures Suggested as a Medium for Re-educating, 294; in the Postwar World, N. P. MEAD, 337
GI: Will the, Bill of Rights Turn Veterans into "Education Hobos"?, 71; President Conant Urges a Revision of the, Bill of Rights, 86; Education Interests College, G. M. HALL, 95; Methods for Children's Schools?, G. H. DEER, 106; Further Comment on Veterans' Education under the, Bill of Rights, R. C. DISQUE, 156; Provisions for Veterans' Education at Hamilton College, 182; Comments on, Joe's Letter, VETERAN OF WORLD WAR I, 235
GOOD, C. V., Master's Degree in Education, 186
GORE, M. E., Third-Grade Failures, 299
Graduate, Enlarged Opportunities for, Work at Syracuse University, 374; President Stoke on Postwar, Education, 388
GREENE, H. W., Meeting the Challenge of Workers' Education, 317

Grist for the Mill, H. BRECHBILL, 332
Guidance, Graduate Internships in, at the University of Michigan, 228; Faculty, Workshop at Clark College, A. A. MCPHEETERS, 365

HALL, G. M., Education Interests College GI's, 94
Hall's, Another Note on G. Stanley, Year of Birth, J. LICHSTEIN, 60
HARTSHORNE, H., Conscription-Training and Its Alternatives, 172
HAWES, M. E., et al., Education Books of 1944, 259
Heath, D. C. and Company: Sixty Years of Textbook Publishing, 212
HEELY, A. V., What's Ahead for Education?, 369
Heidelberg College: A Liberal-Arts College Celebrates 30 Years of Student-Teaching, 148
HENRY, N. B., 44th and 45th "Yearbooks" of the NSSE, 350
HIGGINS, J. J. (S. J.), Comment on "Mathematics—Queen and Handmaiden," 44
HILDEBRAND, J. H., Should Mathematics Be Dropped from High-School Curricula?, 349
History and Hysteria, R. WITHINGTON, 173
HOFFMAN, W. S., Successful "Career Night," 314
Honor Roll of Race Relations, 1944, 181
How Nazis Soldiers were "Educated," E. L. JORDAN, 329
HUGGETT, A. J., Short Workshop for Emergency Rural Teachers, 45
"Hugest Task of Reforming Mass Psychology in History," 357
HUGHES, R. O., In Defense of the Social Sciences, 414

In Defense, of the Unsocial Sciences, P. R. NEUREITER, 157; of the Social Sciences, R. O. HUGHES, 414
Indianapolis Public Schools Organize Adult Forums on Peace Problems, 374
Indoctrination, This, Phobia, W. W. PARKER, 281
Industrial and Labor Relations, Pioneer State School of, 227
Influence of the War on Discipline in Peacetime Education, 340
Institute, on Marriage and Home Adjustment, C. R. ADAMS, 46; 25th Anniversary of the, of International Education, 227
Institutes and Workshops for the Summer Session, 389
Institutions Plan for Veterans, 366
Inter-American, Council for, Co-operation, Inc., 150; Fifth Annual Conference on, Affairs in New Jersey, 213
Interest in China Covers a Wide Field in Education, 408
Interim Report, of AATC Activities and Plans, 307; from the American Association of Adult Education, 406
International, Education Assembly, Third Annual Meeting of, 273; Annual North Central Institute of, Relations, 356; AATC's Program of Education for, Understanding, 387; Problems That a World Office of Education Could Help to Solve, 405
Isolationism, The Case against, from the Historical Point of View, 181
Italian School, Democratization of, H. R. MARRARO, 401
Italy: Night School for U. S. Service Forces in Rome, 424
"It Happened in Springfield," 275

JOHNSON, F. E., Controversial Question of Religion in Public Education, 398
JOHNSON, J. G., "Passing All Pupils": Another Commentary, 383
JORDAN, E. L., How Nazi Soldiers were "Educated," 329
JORDAN, R. H., "Teacher's Nightmare" Again, 315
Junior-College, Student Conference in New Jersey, 197; Status of the, in the United States, 1943–44, W. C. EELLS, 250
Junior Colleges, University of Illinois Advocates a State System of, 117

Kansas State Teachers College Holds Administrative Seminars, 407
Kappa Delta Pi Announces Four New Laureates and its 1946 Lecturer, 245
KELLAM, W. P., Dangers of Peacetime Military Training, 139
KENT, E. C., Shape of Schools to Come, 209
KERN, A. A., Plea for the Single-Purpose Liberal-Arts College, 42
KLAIN, Z., Dumbarton Oaks Proposals and Education, 219
KLAPPER, P., Place of the College in Educating the Veteran for Civilian Life, 177
KNOWLTON, P. A., Rebirth of Pacifism: A Real Danger, 331

Labor-Management, College and, Problems, C. J. TREACY, 155
Lafayette College to Have a Peace Center, 214
LAFFERTY, H. M., Slight Difference of Opinion with "Count Etoxinod," 27
Lag or Leadership in Presenting Intelligent World Views?, M. T. PRICE, 49
LAGERBERG, M. N., Trucks and Teachers, 428
LANDIS, C., and J. F. CUSHMAN, Teacher's Marks versus the Student's Marks, 221
Language, Latin as a Perpetual International, A. SOBEL, 92; What of French in the Foreign-, Programs, 141; Some Reflections of a Modern-, Teacher, A. M. WITHERS, 203
Languages, Defense of Army-Education Technique as Applied to Foreign, F. PRAGER, 58; President Butler Welcomes the Renewed Interest in Foreign, 72
Latin as a Perpetual International Language, A. SOBEL, 92
Latin America, U. S. Government Sponsors the Teaching of English in, 54; United States Will Help toward Universal Education in, 307
Latin-American, Representatives of, Education Visit the United States, 276; Students in Missouri, E. CALLAWAY, 302
LAWSON, S., Order and Chaos in Accrediting, 79
LEFFLER, E., Michigan Conference on Higher Education, 205
Legislation, Child-Labor and Compulsory-Attendance, in 1944, 71
LEWISOHN, M. S., and A. BENEDICT, New Design for Public Elementary Schools, 412
Liberal-Arts, Plea for the Single-Purpose, College, A. A. KERN, 42; New, Program at Syracuse University, 198
Liberal Orientations: Problems of the School, V. ARANGIO-RUIZ, 33
Liberated Areas, Education in Some of the, 88
Librarians, Opportunities for, at Western Reserve University, 119
Librarianship, Art of, W. D. POSTELL, 419
Library: Fellowships and Scholarships Available in the University of Chicago, 5; Graduate Work in the Peabody, School, 134; Rocky Mountain Rural, Institute, July 23-August 10, 326; Expanded Service of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, 423
LICHSTEIN, J., Another Note on G. Stanley Hall's Year of Birth, 60
Literature in Wartime, H. MUCHNIC, 77
London, Directorship of the Institute of Education, University of, 134
Looking Back from 1950: A Transcript of a Projected Letter, W. PEISER, 385
LOWRY, H. F., Sketch for a Family Portrait, 417

MCBAIN, L. C., and R. M. EDMISTON, Social and Economic Background Affects School Achievement, 190
MCGRATH, E. J., Procrustean Bed of Higher Education, 81
MCKEON, (MRS.) R. M., Education and the "Mental 4-F's," 122

McPheeters, A. A., Faculty Guidance Workshop at Clark College, 365
Maine Veteran's Rehabilitation Experiment, C. E. Benson, 312
Marraro, H. R., Democratization of the Italian School, 401
Marriage, Institute on, and Home Adjustment, C. R. Adams, 46; and Home Adjustment, R. P. Rice, Jr., 415
Maryland, Educational Progress in, 291
Mathematics, Comment on,—Queen and Handmaiden, J. J. Higgins (S.J.), 44; Should, Be Dropped from High-School Curricula?, J. H. Hildebrand, 349
Mead, N. P., Germany in the Postwar World, 337
Miles, I. W., Experiment in Vocabulary Building in a High School, 285
Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, Contest Sponsored by, 423
Montgomery (Ala.) Reports Notable Progress in Negro Education, C. M. Dannelly, 430
Morrison, H. C., and His Contribution to American Education, H. A. Brown, 380
Motion Pictures Suggested as a Medium for Re-educating Germany, 294
Muchnic, H., Literature in Wartime, 77
Mulford, H. B., New Evidences of Lay Interest in Public-School Problems, 305
Museum Holds a Visual-Aids Institute, I. F. Cypher, 316
Musgrave, A. W., Higher Education in Relation to Vocational Education and Vocational Training, 232

National, Sex Ratio and the Problem of "Reconversion," C. Alexander, 362; Problem of Meeting, Needs through Decentralized Education, 422
Nazi, How, Soldiers Were "Educated," E. L. Jordan, 329
NCA Lifts Its Wartime Moratorium on Accrediting Activities, 275
NEA, 7th Year of the, Institutes on Professional and Public Relations, 4; Summer Meeting of the, Representative Assembly Canceled, 196
NEA's, Investigation of Certain Conditions in the Chicago Public Schools, 356
Negro, Concerning the United, College Fund, Inc., 149; United, College Fund, Inc., B. R. Andrews, 333; Montgomery (Ala.) Reports Notable Progress in, Education, C. M. Dannelly, 430
Negroes, Series of Conferences on Graduate Education for, 358
Netherlands in the Educational News, 246
Neureiter, P. R., In Defense of the Unsocial Sciences, 157
New, Device for Evaluating the Work of College Students, H. M. Bond, 94; Evidences of Lay Interest in Public-School Problems, H. B. Mulford, 305; School of Foreign Service at the University of Virginia, 308; Courses on Far-Eastern Areas and Languages at Stanford University, 325; Educational Magazine for the Soviet Union, 325; Plan for Compulsory Military Training in the USSR, 375; Design for Public Elementary Schools, M. S. Lewisohn and A. Benedict, 412
Newton, H. C., Opportunities for War Veterans in the Field of Pharmacy, 347
New York State School of Industrial and Labor Relations, 227
Night School for U. S. Service Forces in Rome, 424
Nixon, A. F., Correlation of Biology and the Social Studies, 297
North Carolina, Sesquicentennial of the University of, 72
North Central Institute, Annual, of International Relations, 356
NSSE, 44th and 45th "Yearbooks" of, N. B. Henry, 350

Odgers, G. A., Further Comment on the College-Fraternity Problems, 382
Odum, Howard W., Wins the Edward L. Bernays Award, 71
Ohio State University's New Program in Personnel Relations, 342
Oliver, R. T., Shall We Stretch Thin or Build Solid?, 257
Opportunities for War Veterans in the Field of Pharmacy, H. C. Newton, 347

Pacifism, Rebirth of,: A Real Danger, P. A. Knowlton, 331
Parker, W. W., This Indoctrination Phobia, 281
"Passing, of the Progressive Education Association": A Reply to Dr. Kelley, F. E. Baker, 348; "All Pupils": Another Commentary, J. G. Johnson, 383
Pea, Growth and Decline of the, K. C. Pratt, 187
Peace, Winning the,: Second World Renaissance, A. A. Ellerd, Jr., 1; Lafayette College to Have a, Center, 214; What Shall We Teach about?, I. D. Weeks, 225; Educational Problems of the, Will Not Be Discussed at San Francisco, 291; Indianapolis Public Schools Organize Adult Forums on, Problems, 374
Peacetime, NASCMC on Compulsory, Conscription, 101; Westminster College on, Training, 101; Wartime Teacher Education in Kentucky, with, Implications, W. S. Taylor, 289; Influence of the War on Discipline in, Education, 340
Peiser, W., Looking Back From 1950: A Transcript of a Projected Letter, 385
Personnel, Assistantships in Student-, Work at Syracuse University, 38; Ohio State University's New Program in, Relations, 342
Pharmacy, Opportunities for War Veterans in the Field of, H. C. Newton, 347
Ph.D., Reforming the,: Comment on Dr. Ruediger's Comment, R. M. Gay, 59; That, Again: Comment on Professor Gay's Comment, W. C. Ruediger, 396
Physical Education, Still Another Plea for Rational, Programs, F. R. Rogers, 364
Pilley, J., Reply to Professor Thut, 124; What's in a Name?: A Rejoinder to Professor Otto's "Batting for Bode," 300
Pilley, Fielding for Professor, H. L. Reinke, 125
Place of the College in Educating the Veteran for Civilian Life, P. Klapper, 177
Platform for the American Education Fellowship, 390
Poll of Public Opinion Favors an International Office of Education, 324
Pomona College, Curriculum Reorganization, 374
Porterfield, A. W., Hereafter of College Fraternities, 193
Portrait of a Liberal Student, R. C. Wright, 354
Postell, W. D., Art of Librarianship, 419
Postwar: Conferences at the University of Denver on, Business Problems, 37; Plans of Boston University Students Now in Service, 38; Lag or Leadership in Presenting Intelligent World Views?, M. T. Price, 49; Plans for a Reincarnation of the "AEF University" of 1918–19, 148; Shall We Stretch Thin or Build Solid?, R. T. Oliver, 257; Two University Presidents on the Critical Problems of, Education, 293; American and English Students Discuss, Education over the Air, 325; Germany in the, World, N. P. Mead, 337; President Stoke on, Graduate Education, 388; Conference on the Arts, Sciences, and Professions in the, World, 422
Prager, F., Defense of Army-Education Technique as Applied to Foreign Languages, 58
Pratt, K. C., Growth and Decline of the Pea, 187
Preface to Life, M. Wolfson, 429
Prejudice, National, That Has Become an Important Educational Asset, 164
Price, M. T., Lag or Leadership in Presenting Intelligent World Views?, 49
Problem of Meeting National Needs through Decentralized Education, 422
Problems That a World Office of Education Could Help to Solve, 405
Procrustean Bed of Higher Education, E. J. McGrath, 81

Progressive Education Comes of Age, W. A. YAUCH, 97; "Passing of the, Association": A Reply to Dr. Kelley, F. E. BAKER, 348
Public, 7th Year of the NEA Institutes on Professional and, Relations, 4; New Evidences of Lay Interest in, School Problems, H. B. MULFORD, 305; Opinion Poll Favors an International Office of Education, 324; NEA's Investigation of Certain Conditions in Chicago's, Schools, 356

Read the Bill, Not the Summaries, F. J. DONOHUE, 41; Comment on, F. J. BROWN, 174
Reading, Annual Seminar and Conference on the, Clinic, PSC, 5; ALA Report on Major, Interests, 1944, 167
Rebirth of Pacifism: A Real Danger, P. A. KNOWLTON, 331
Recent Educational Progress in Vermont, 357
"Reconversion," National Sex Ratio and the Problem of, C. ALEXANDER, 362
"Reforming the Ph.D.": Comment on Dr. Ruediger's Comment, R. M. GAY, 59
Rehabilitation, Maine Veterans', Experiment, C. E. BENSON, 312
REINKE, H. L., Fielding for Professor Pilley, 125
Religion, Controversial Question of, in Public Education, F. E. JOHNSON, 398
REMMERS, H. H., and K. S. DAVENPORT, Educational Achievement as Compared with Money Spent on Schools, 333
Reorganization of the University of Houston, 341
RICE, C. P., JR., Some Notes on the Degree, Doctor of Philosophy, 234; Marriage and Home Adjustment, 415
RIDDLE, O., "Education for All American Youth" from the Point of View of a Biologist, 113
Rocky Mountain Rural Library Institute, July 23–August 10, 326
ROGERS, F. R., Still Another Plea for Rational Physical-Education Programs, 364
ROGERS, C. L., Freshman English for Foreigners, 394
Roosevelt's, Franklin D., Contributions to American Idealism, 243
ROUCEK, J. S., How the Immigrant Has Influenced American Life, 108
RUEDIGER, W. C., That Ph.D. Again: A Comment on Professor Gay's Comment, 396
Ruediger's, "Reforming the Ph.D.": Comment on Dr., Comment, R. M. GAY, 59
Rural: Short Workshop for Emergency, Teachers, A. J. HUGGETT, 45; Rocky Mountain, Library Institute, July 23–August 10, 326; Expanded Service of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, 423

SAE, Inc., Annual Meeting of, 309
San Francisco, Educational Problems of the Peace Will not Be Discussed at, 291
Santa(yana), George, A. Reply to, 380
SCHOOL AND SOCIETY, Will Increase Its Available Space by 25 Per Cent, 215; Will Move to New Quarters, 356
Scientists, Collegiate Training of Recently Starred, S. S. VISHER, 17; Distribution of the Recently Starred, S. S. VISHER, 109
Secondary Schools, Proportion of Entering Pupils Graduated by, G. E. CARROTHERS, 12
Series of Conferences on Graduate Education for Negroes, 358
Servicemen, They Serve Our,: A Report from Hollywood High School, H. G. BLACK, 29
Services' Testing Programs Should Have Vital Lessons for Education, 244
Sex Ratio, National, and the Problem of "Reconversion," C. ALEXANDER, 362
Shape of Schools to Come, E. C. KENT, 209
SHAW, F. A., Private School in American Education, 78
Should, Federal Aid Be Provided for Nonpublic Schools?, 324; Mathematics Be Dropped from High-School Curricula?, J. H. HILDEBRAND, 349
SISSON, E. O., Universal Military Training: Two Considerations, 332
Sketch for a Family Portrait, H. F. LOWRY, 417
SMITH, M., Change of Attitude toward Punishment of Criminals, 236
SNAVELY, G. E., The Continuing College President, 154
SOBEL, A., Latin as a Perpetual International Language, 92
Social: In Defense of the Unsocial Sciences, P. R. NEUREITER, 157; Education or Legislation in Promoting, Reforms, 180; and Economic Background Affects School Achievement, R. W. EDMISTON and L. C. MCBAIN, 190; Correlation of Biology and the, Studies, A. F. NIXON, 297; In Defense of the, Sciences, R. O. HUGHES, 414
Soviet Union, New Educational Magazine for, 325
Springfield "[Mass.]," It Happened in, 275
STANFORD, E. V., Case against Peacetime Conscription, 129
Stanford University, New Courses on Far-Eastern Areas and Languages at, 325
STEINLAUF, N. T., What Is American History?, 362
STEVENSON, F. G., Liberal Education: Training Table or Cafeteria?, 187
STEWART, M. A., Acceleration Is a Problem in Implementation, 346
Still Another Plea for Rational Physical-Education Programs, F. R. ROGERS, 364
Stoke, President, on Postwar Graduate Education, 388
Stoke's [Harold Walter], Vital Educational Questions Discussed at President, Inauguration, 3
Studebaker, John W., Indorses ODT Request for Canceled Vacations, 101
Successful "Career Night," W. S. HOFFMAN, 314
Sullivan Memorial Library Fellowships at Temple University, 357
Summer, Sessions of 1945, 167; Courses for Training Teachers of the Partially Seeing Children, 308
Syracuse University, Enlarged Opportunities for Graduate Work, 374

TAYLOR, W. S., Wartime Teacher-Education in Kentucky, with Peacetime Implications, 289
Teacher Certification: Trucks and Teachers, M. N. LAGERBERG, 428
Teachers, Trucks and, M. N. LAGERBERG, 428
Teacher's, Marks versus the Student's Marks, C. LANDIS and J. F. CUSHMAN, 221; Time for a, Union, E. A. CROSS, 241; Nightmare Again, R. H. JORDAN, 315
Temple University, Sullivan Memorial Library Fellowships at, 357
Test, Some Uses of the ACE English, in Worcester Teachers College, L. A. AVERILL, 253
Testing, Services', Programs Should Have Vital Lessons for Education, 244
Third-Grade Failures, M. E. GORE, 299
THOMPSON, A., Minnesota Group Adopts Resolutions on Compulsory Peacetime Training, 47
Thut, Reply to Professor, J. PILLEY, 124
TOMLINSON, L. E., Entrance Requirements as Related to General Secondary Education, 107
TRAXLER, A. E., Correlation between Two Tests of Academic Aptitude, 383
TREACY, C. J., College and Labor-Management Problems, 155
TRIGGS, F., Word for Those Who Left School to Enter War Industries, 175
TROW, W. C., Attitude of College Faculties toward Military Training, 44
Trucks and Teachers, M. N. LAGERBERG, 428
Tuition Plan, Inc., Fifth Annual Luncheon-Forum of, 133

ULLMAN, B. L., Citations by the American Classical League, 12; Compulsory Military Training, 219
Universal Military Training: Two Considerations, E. O. SISSON, 332
United States Will Help Latin America Toward Universal Education, 307

Universal Adult Education, W. W. BRICKMAN, 316
University, Two, Presidents on Critical Problems of Post-war Education, 293; of Chicago Organizes Adult Courses in "Great Books," 294; New School of Foreign Service at the, of Virginia, 308; Reorganization of the, of Houston, 341
USSR, New Plan for Compulsory Military Training in the, 375

Veteran, Education of, Now a Reality in Michigan, E. B. ELLIOTT, 158; Place of the College in Educating the, for Civilian Life, P. KLAPPER, 177; of World War I: Comments on "GI Joe's" Letter, 235
Veterans, Columbia University's Policies as to the Admission of War, 214; Data on, Now Enrolled in Indiana University, 245; Maine, Rehabilitation Experiment, C. E. BENSON, 312; Opportunities for War, in the Field of Pharmacy, H. C. NEWTON, 347; Institutions Plan for, 366
VISHER, S. S., Collegiate Training of Recently Starred Scientists, 17; Distribution of the Recently Starred Scientists, 109
Vocational, Higher Education in Relation to, Education and, Training, A. W. MUSGRAVE, 232

Wage-Earning Experience of Undergraduate Students in Education, F. S. DUNHAM, 399
WAKEHAM, G., Everybody Should Know Everything, 379
WALTERS, R., Annual Meeting of the Association of American Colleges, 60; Analysis of 1944 Attendance, 30 Representative Universities, 65
War, Has the, Affected Civilian Students' Educational Interests?, 86; Word for Those Who Left School to Enter, Industries, F. TRIGGS, 175; -time Teacher-Education in Kentucky, with Peacetime Implications, W. S. TAYLOR, 289; Influence of the, on Discipline in Peacetime Education, 340; Opportunities for, Veterans in the Field of Pharmacy, H. C. NEWTON, 347; Effects of, on Research as Represented by Doctors' Dissertations, 406
Washington Luncheon-Forum of Youth-Serving Agencies, 189
WEEKS, I. D., What Shall We Teach about Peace?, 225
Westminster College on Peacetime Training, 101
What Is American History?, N. T. STEINLAUF, 362
What's, in a Name?: A Rejoinder to Professor Otto's "Batting for Bode," J. PILLEY, 300; Ahead for Education?, A. V. HEELY, 369
WHEELER, J. L., et al., Education Books of 1944, 259
WHITE, L. A., Education: America's Magic, 353
Who Teaches Whom?, G. BYRON, 123
Will Gifts to Universities Continue?, P. H. DAVIS, 145
Winning the Peace: Second World Renaissance, A. A. ELLERD, JR., 1
Winship, Albert Edward, Centennial of the Birth of, 116
WITHERS, A. M., Some Reflections of a Modern-Language Teacher, 203
WITHINGTON, R., History and Hysteria, 173
W. K. Kellogg Foundation, Expanded Service of, 423
WOLFSON, M., Preface to Life, 429
Workers' Education, Meeting the Challenge of, H. W. GREENE, 317
Workshop, Short, for Emergency Rural Teachers, A. J. HUGGETT, 45; Faculty Guidance, at Clark College, A. A. MCPHEETERS, 365; Co-operation at Its Best, 373
Workshops, to Be Featured in the 1945 Summer Session, 372; and Institutes for the Summer Session, 389
WRIGHT, R. C., Portrait of a Liberal Student, 354

YAUCH, W. C., Progressive Education Comes of Age, 97
Yeshiva College to be a University, 390
YIVO, Academic Council of the, 150
Youth, "American, for a Free World" Sponsors World, Week, March 21–28, 36

ZIMMERMAN, A. F., New School-Building Program for Chile, 126; Chilean Democracy in Action, 367
ZOOK, DR., Urges an Annual Federal-Aid Appropriation of $500,000,000, 212